April Meeting Feedback

What is going well...

- Collaborating with each other
- Hearing updates from the Sub-Regional tables
- Being inspired from hearing about the broader process and what is going well

What we could do better...

- Increase youth participation in this process
- Increase industry/employer participation
- Create space for cross-sector collaboration
- Maximize the focus of these meetings by boiling down the information

Agenda

- Welcome (5 mins)

Regional Plan Part 2 - Updates

1. Met with many Bay Area Jobs First Collaborative community members:
 - a. All Sub-Regional Table Co-Conveners 1:1
 - b. All Sub-Regional Tables as groups
 - c. Research, Planning and Community Engagement (RPCE) group
 - d. Steering Committee
 - e. Regional Plan Part 2 Workgroup
 - f. Others both in-person & virtually
2. Developed a draft outline for the written report.
3. Worked with the Collaborative to finalize “The Matrix” - focal sectors, sub-sectors, cross-cutting strategies, etc.
4. Continuing to gather and absorb data and written materials from the Regional Plan Part 1 and stakeholders.

Regional Plan Part II - Sectors & Cross-Cutting Strategies

SECTORS/INDUSTRIES	CROSS-CUTTING ECONOMIC FOUNDATION STRATEGIES
Arts and Culture	Removing Institutional and Structural Barriers
Childcare/Early Childhood Education (ECE)	Small Business/Co-ops/Entrepreneurship
Construction	Government Including Transportation & Transit, K-14 Education, & Social Services
Healthcare	Regional Coordination Entity & Continued Funding
Manufacturing
Natural Resources and Environment

Regional Plan Part Two - Breakout Groups

Breakout Room 1: Removing Institutional & Structural Barriers

Breakout Room 2: Small Businesses, Co-ops & Entrepreneurship

Breakout Room 3: Government (including K-14 Education, Transportation & Transit, & Social Services)

Discussion question:

From your perspective, what partners need to be at the table from your region, community or constituency to successfully implement strategies in each area that ensure equitable access to emerging high-road jobs in the Bay Area?

Regional Plan Part Two

Next Steps

1. Continue to synthesize data and written materials from the Regional Plan Part I and stakeholders.
2. Continue to write and refine the report - 1st draft due 6/24.
3. Get input on 1st draft from stakeholder community.
4. Final draft due 7/22.

Please join the consultant team at Office Hours to share your thoughts & suggestions! Next session: 6/19, 1pm.
